GATHERING STATISTICS

Are Special Reporters of the United States Historical Association in This City.

Five special reporters for the United States Army and Navy Historical Association are in the city, quartered at the Brunswick Hotel. They have been here during the past week, and may be here for a month or six weeks, as they are ordered by the department at Washington. The members of the party are J. G. Forbes, R. L. Winslow, C. H. Nichols, J. G. Pulsifer and J. G. Smith.

A reporter endeavored to secure some information regarding the nature of their visit to this city, but they would state nothing further than that they were gathering statistics for the compilation of records for a Civil War history, the work to be used as a historical reference. There are special reporters at work all over the United States, and they belong to the district east of the Mississippi. Concerning the work they were reluctant.

Luncheon was discussed at 12 o'clock.

Strong Statements

are all right when the solid truth is behind them. In fact, a truthful advertiser's duty to the public is to make his statements as strong as possible. WE CAN AND DO GIVE GREATER PIANO VALUES THAN ANYONE ELSE IN THE STATE, and certainly we should say so, and it is to your advantage to know it. The proof is in the seeing; it is for you to investigate. Come in and see us and we will convince you what we say is true.
